

Bats are flying mammals that are attracted to flowers that are white or pale in color, large in size and have a strong fruit-like fragrance. Bats drink the sweet nectar inside flowers, picking up a dusting of pollen and moving it along to other flowers as they feed. Bats are nocturnal, which means they come out at night.